

Applications are invited for the post of Editor of the Journal of The Beadworkers Guild. This is an exciting opportunity for anybody enthusiastic about spreading the beading bug!

The person appointed will be a beadworker with proven pattern and feature writing skills. They will have experience of managing a team and of working within a budget and to tight deadlines. They will have the ability to travel to attend some bead shows around the UK and to attend the Guild's main membership event of the year which is held over a long weekend in May.

Applicants should explain why they consider themselves suitable for the post and provide a full C.V.

The job description is available to download from the Home page of the Guild's website at www.beadworkersguild.org.uk
